Building Community Resilience for Emergencies

Ealing and Hounslow CVS, Ealing Council, The British Red Cross will be hosting Community Resilience workshops across Ealing. We invite community groups, charities, businesses, people from the faith sector, residents and everyone else to join.

Why are we doing this?

We know that Ealing's resilience to emergencies is reliant on everyone working together.

Stronger connections are crucial to ensuring that emergencies are handled in the best way possible: To enhance collaboration with the community, the council and emergency response organisations in cases of major emergencies • To create community focused plans to effectively prepare, respond to, and recover from major emergencies • To ensure that the voices and perspectives of the community are central to local emergency planning

Get Involved!

We can't build community resilience without you! Your input is crucial for this. Join us and the Ealing Community as we work together for this. We invite you to a series of four workshops that will be held across Ealing, sign up on Eventbrite to reserve your place:
